First step with Maison Lartigue for a guided and commented tour of the workshop Creators and Weavers of Basque linen.

For four generations, the Lartigue family has continued their expertise in traditional Basque linen.

Then, a visit to Espelette which is also known for its chili pepper and for the trade in these small wild horses called Pottoks.

After that, a stopover in the village to visit a chili (red gold) cultivation farm with tasting of products made from the famous chili.

Lastly, we will stop in the greenhouses of Espelette chilli production at the chilli workshop.

If the weather doesn't allow it, we will do a presentation of the video made on the farm with explanations.

La Rhune is located a few kilometers from the Atlantic Ocean, at an altitude of 905m and offers a 360 ° panorama of Spain, the Basque coast and the Landes.

La Rhune can be discovered on foot or by train.

The GR10 passes on the northern flank of this mountain range, without however reaching its summit, in its original route. The landscapes at the top of this mountain offer beautiful views of the Basque coast, as well as of many peaks of the Pyrenees.

The fauna and flora is very interesting, from the summit you can observe many raptors, goats and many Pottoks roaming free on its slopes.

Access by train: an ascent of about 35 minutes to the summit - explanation by your guides around the orientation table.
